

House Resolution No. 1294

Whereas, it is with utmost respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their daily legislative endeavors in order to recognize those Show-Me State youths who truly embody the concept of “Outstanding Missouri Student” through their deeds and achievements; and

Whereas, Erin Berry of Ozark, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a high school student in the Ozark R-VI School District; and

Whereas, on Tuesday, March 30, 2004, Erin Berry will meet with state legislators in the Missouri House of Representatives to receive well-deserved honors and accolades for the exemplary role she has performed in Missouri as a student leader; and

Whereas, holder of a 4.0 grade point average throughout her high school studies, senior Erin Berry has served a Career Internship with the Christian County Prosecutor’s Office and the Ozark R-VI Security Office; held the office of Senate Minority Leader at Missouri Girls’ State; participated in Debate as a Champ A team member, High School Choir III, and National Honor Society; fulfilled the duties of football statistician; taken College Algebra from Ozarks Technical Community College and Advanced Placement English; and served as a Teen Court attorney and member of the Governor’s Youth Cabinet during her final high school year; and

Whereas, Erin Berry will graduate with Honors and a College Preparatory Certificate in May 2004, after which she will pursue a degree in psychology and biology with a long-range goal of attending law school; and

Whereas, in addition to her exceptional record of achievement in academics and extracurricular leadership, Erin Berry manages to hold down a job at famous Lambert’s Cafe, “home of throwed rolls” and other gustatory delights:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Erin Berry as an “Outstanding Missouri Student” and to extend to her this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capitol on March 30, 2004, for special recognition as a guest in the House Chamber; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of "Outstanding Missouri Student" Erin Berry of Ozark, Missouri.
